AN INDUSTRIAL VISIT

EDUCATIONAL SITE VISIT FOR DIPLOMA CIVIL ENGINEERING STUDENTS

Diploma Civil Engineering students undertook an educational visit to an under-construction building to gain practical exposure. The visit provided valuable insights into real-time construction activities, materials, structural components, and on-site practices, enhancing their understanding beyond classroom learning.

Highlights of the visit included:

- Live demonstrations of reinforcement tying, formwork erection, and concrete handling.
- Quality-control practices such as slump testing and sample cube preparation for compressive strength testing.
- A safety briefing and adherence to personal protective equipment (helmets, boots, and high-visibility vests) throughout the tour.

The visit reinforced key learning outcomes — site safety, construction sequencing, material testing, and practical problem solving — and encouraged students to connect design principles with on-field realities. Students were assigned follow-up tasks including a short report and annotated sketches to consolidate observations. The programme concluded with thanks to the site team and faculty for facilitating an insightful and instructive learning experience.

AN INDUSTRIAL VISIT

INDUSTRIAL VISIT TO ODISHA POWER TRANSMISSION CORPORATION LIMITED, PADHANPALI GRID

Students from B.Tech and Diploma programmes undertook an insightful and educational industrial visit to OPTCL's Padhanpali Grid. The visit provided valuable practical exposure to key components of high-voltage power transmission systems, including:

- Power Transformers
- Circuit Breakers
- Current Transformers (CT) & Potential Transformers (PT)
- Protection and Control Panels
- SCADA Systems
- Substation Safety Measures

The engineers at OPTCL explained the functioning, monitoring, and maintenance of grid infrastructure, offering in-depth knowledge about load management, fault detection, and system reliability. Students also learned about safety protocols and real-time control operations essential for efficient power transmission. We sincerely thank the OPTCL team for their guidance, technical insights, and warm support in making this visit highly informative and enriching.
