Formation of ISTE Faculty & Student Chapter

Indian Society for Technical Education (ISTE), a national professional organization focused on technical education in India. It's open to individuals and institutions involved in or interested in this field. ISTE aims to enhance the quality of technical education by supporting the development of skilled engineers and technicians, as well as promoting professional development for educators.

The Professional body, Indian Society of Technical Education (ISTE), New Delhi, has approved our application for reactivation of the Faculty Chapter & Student Chapter to conduct various technical programmes in the banner of ISTE. The chapters were established in the year 2011 in the name of Vikash College of Engineering (for Women) and were deactivated. Now the Executive Secretary of ISTE has approved our application & allowed us to reactivate the Chapters in the name of Vikash Institute of Technology, Bargarh.
